LIBERTY LION

Published by the students of

Liberty Union High School

BRENTWOOD, CALIFORNIA

1944
To you, our fighting Liberty Lions all over the world, we dedicate this Liberty Lion.

Our most sincere hope is that you will soon be home.

IN MEMORIAM

We shall always remember the gallantry of those who have given their lives.
PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to you, one and all, on the production of this fine annual. You have worked diligently and well, and you merit the thanks of the student body.

It is a source of satisfaction to serve as the principal of such a fine group of young people as we have here at Liberty, particularly during these difficult times.

Your patriotism has been practically shown by your participation in the War Stamp and Bond Sales, your contributions to the Red Cross, your attendance in the short term War Activities classes, in the fine work of the L.U.H.S. cadets, and Christmas greetings and packages you have so generously sent to our boys and girls serving their country at home and abroad.

Thanks for your cooperation and help in making our school and student body one of the best in this state.

Sincerely,

E. G. NASH

'43 CALE

Girls of the Home Econ club entertain the Block "L" boys and the Future Farmers at a box supper and dance, September 22, 1943.

Girls' League sponsors Carnegie Hall Dance, September 24, 1943.

October 1, 1943—Future Farmers go all out to make their barn dance a gala success. Believe it or not, the "chillun" danced to a real orchestra!

The Sophomores "dig it" at their Sophomoron Jive Dance, October 8, 1943.

The Freshmen are officially welcomed at the Freshmen Reception, given by the Sophomores on October 15, 1943. Dancing follows a brief program and refreshments.

The Juniors' Mystery Party, October 22, 1943, turns out to be a novelty dance and a program of skits and games.

The wild-eyed gals pursue the cringing boys to the Sadie Hawkins Dance, November 4, 1943.

Old Clothes Day, November 12, 1943—everybody helps clean up the school and then gorges on hot dogs.

The feminine half of the Student Body frolics at the exclusive Girls' Hi Jinx, November 12, 1943.

Who knows whence the mighty Seniors vanish? Not far, with gas rationed as it is, Senior Ditch Day, November 19, 1943.

The Sophs open the "Sky Room" for dancing at the Sophomore Hop, December 3, 1943.

The G.A.A. girls are hostesses to the football boys at a Christmas party, December 14, 1943.
The Seniors give a Bad Taste (as usual?) Dance in Leap Year's grand old traditions, January 14, 1944.

The Home Econ club sponsors a Mixing Bowl Dance, January 28, 1944.

Mr. Claudon's Athletic Carnival goes over with a bang, February 4, 1944. The receipts were used to buy athletic equipment.

Cupid does his best and shoots his straightest at the Girls' League Valentine Dance, February 11, 1944.

The Future Farmers invite the Home Econ girls as guests of honor to a second Valentine Dance, February 14, 1944.

Following a narrow defeat by the Livermore varsity, the Freshmen give the only After-the-Game Dance of the Year, February 18, 1944.

The 'aud' is jammed at the very successful, very well-acted, and much-enjoyed Student Body Play, March 17, 1944.

Mr. VonderAhe directs the Red Cross benefit basketball show, March 30, 1944. Staid, dignified citizens of the community "roll 'em in the aisles" with their antics and freakish attire.

April 14, 1944 — The Junior Prom is a very gay, colorful occasion. Everyone is equipped with a lei to add the finishing touch to the Hawaiian decorations.

April 28, 1944 — The musicians of Liberty belabor themselves over the light and airy Spring Concert. But the resulting success was well worth their time and effort.

May 5, 1944 — Our mothers attend their annual Mothers' Tea, sponsored by the Girls' League. The 'aud' is decorated like a Dutch garden.

G.A.A. Banquet, May 10, 1944. Even the women teachers join in on the games—and the refreshments.

Senior Ball — The graduating class nostalgically presents their last entertainment on May 19, 1944. Boys and girls dance in the moonlight.

Graduation, June 9, 1944 — Need we say more?
